Beloved of God, let us gather in worship.

Beloved are all who worship and give thanks.

Beloved – all who have hungered and who thirst, in body or spirit, let us gather in worship.

Beloved – all who grieve and mourn, and strive for healing of the soul, let us gather in worship.

Beloved – all who feel meek, who struggle for power and strength in this overwhelming world, let us gather in worship.

Beloved – you who have shown mercy, who seek peace, and who stand up for justice, let us gather in worship.

Beloved are you who follow Jesus' way.

In our worship, let us hear this invitation to be known and seen by God.

Come, let us gather and hear again the affirmations of Jesus as we worship.

Let us pray now in the words he gave for us...

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.

Thy Kingdom come,

thy will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen
